Mahler Corporate Finance is offering an M&A internship position for ambitious finance students

Mahler Corporate Finance is one of the leading independent corporate finance firms in the Netherlands. We offer a full range of mergers and acquisitions advisory services. Mahler Corporate Finance has a strong foothold in the Dutch M&A mid-market. We advise locally as well as internationally to large multinationals, listed and privately held companies, their shareholders, management and (private equity) investors. Mahler Corporate Finance is specialized in creative structures and solutions for complex transaction environments. Our deeply rooted corporate finance knowledge is evidenced by the broad range of transactions that we have successfully executed.

We are content and quality driven in all corporate finance areas including buy side, sell side, mergers, LBO's, PtP's, reverse take-overs and debt advisory. An important area of our long track-record is in complicated hands-on restructuring as well.

On a continuous and rolling basis, we are seeking excellent finance students close to finishing their Master's degree to join our team of advisors.
